

county, any speckled or brook trout, California or rainbow trout, brown or German trout, or Rocky Mountain or black spotted trout, of less length than eight inches from the snout to the end of the caudal fin; nor shall any person at any time catch or take from the waters of said county, or have in his possession, or sell or offer for sale within said county, any lake or salmon trout, land-locked salmon or white fish of less length than ten inches from the end of the snout to the end of the caudal fin. Any person who shall catch or take from the waters of said county any fish mentioned in this section of less length than is herein specified shall immediately place such fish back in the waters from which it was taken, and shall use due care not to kill or injure the same. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction before any justice of the peace of said county, forfeit and pay a fine of five dollars and the costs of the prosecution for attempting to catch or kill any of said fish as herein forbidden, and five dollars for each fish so caught, taken, killed, sold, offered for sale or had in his possession; and, in default of payment of said fine and costs, shall be committed to the jail of said county for a period of not less than five nor more than thirty days.

138. No person shall catch, or attempt to catch, kill, or attempt to kill, in the waters of said county, any of the fish named in the two preceding sections, with or by means of any fish-pot, trot or out-line, seine, weir, fykes, pound or trap-net, drag-net, stir-net, set-net, sledging, gigging, or any snare or device whatsoever, except by angling with hand-line, or rod held in hand, or by dip or hand net. All trot or out-lines, nets, seines and other devices, except fish-pots, forbidden by this section to be used, are hereby declared to be nuisances and contraband; and any person finding the same in the waters of said county, or adjacent thereto, is authorized to destroy such contraband articles, and no action for damages shall lie against him for such destruction. Any person violating any provision of this section shall, upon conviction before any justice of the peace of said county, forfeit and pay a fine of not less than ten nor more than twenty-five dollars, and the costs of the prosecution; and in default of
